

What is Joomla! and why is it so great!

Joomla! is an open source content management project. This means that it is free and it is maintained by a global consortium of developers, programmers, IT professionals, and community members. Joomla! has a history that goes back about 5 years and is currently in its 5th major release. Joomla! has been rated the best open source CMS project for the past 2 years running.

You can learn more about Joomla! online at the follow websites...

www.joomla.org

www.opensourcematters.org