Joe Wells

Design Lead

Joe is also a founding member of Superhouse.

Joe Wells is an experienced video editor, videographer, and multimedia designer. Joe also has a lot of experience as a PA/Grip on film shoots, and as a stage hand at corporate events/live exhibits. He is a fast learner. He was a Bachelors degree in electronic media/broadcast journalism.

Joe has been working on computer related media projects for well over eight years. He is happiest when sitting in front of a full timeline of video edits in Final Cut Pro, but he spends just as much time in photoshop, flash, and dreamweaver creating custom web site designs.
